DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 5/8/06 has been entered.

REJECTIONS WITHDRAWN

2. There are no rejections withdrawn.

REJECTIONS REPEATED

3. All of the 102 and 103 rejections set forth in the final rejection of 12/8/05, pages 2-7, paragraphs 4-10 are repeated for the reasons of record. Applicant has added the limitation "consisting essentially of" to claim 1. When an applicant contends that additional steps or materials in the prior art are excluded by the recitation of "consisting essentially of," applicant has the burden of showing that the introduction of additional steps or components would materially change the characteristics of applicant's invention. In re De Lajarte, 337 F.2d 870, 143 USPQ 256 (CCPA 1964).

NEW REJECTIONS

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 27-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kobayashi et al. (US 4125032).

The properties recited in claims 27-28 with regards to the shape retainability, which is related to heat stability, are inherent in the invention of Kobayashi since the materials and structure are the same as applicant's, as described above, and because Kobayashi discloses very high heat stability and deflection temperature (column 9, lines 53-63, column 10, lines 25-30, column 17, lines 40-51, column 18, lines 28-39 and Table 6) (applies to instant claim 1).

ANSWERS TO APPLICANT'S ARGUMENTS

6. Applicant's arguments of 4/10/06 have been carefully considered but are deemed unpersuasive.

When an applicant contends that additional steps or materials in the prior art are excluded by the recitation of "consisting essentially of," applicant has the burden of showing that the introduction of additional steps or components would materially change the characteristics of applicant's invention. In re De Lajarte, 337 F.2d 870, 143 USPQ 256 (CCPA 1964). To date applicant has not shown that the introduction of additional steps or components would materially change the characteristics of applicant's invention.
